tiNai ECOFILM FESTIVAL 2015

NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON ECOCINEMA

The second edition of tiNai Ecofilm Festival (TEFF) was held from 08 to 10 October, 2015. TEFF 2015 screened twenty ecofilms, and conducted a national conference with twenty paper presentations, along with two workshops headed by eminent filmmakers and activists.

This edition of TEFF also had a National Conference on Ecocinema on the theme "Celebrating Landscapes and Waterscapes." The National Seminar had Prof. Salma Monani of Gettysburg College, USA, and Rachel Carson Fellow, Munich, as the Chief Guest and Keynote Speaker, respectively, while Nandan Saxena and Kavita Bahl, both National Award winning filmmakers, were the Chief Guests for the Film Festival.

An international eco-documentary competition was organized as part of the festival, and 82 films were entered. The two workshops that were held were on "Photography and Digital Filmmaking" and "Documentary as a tool for Social Change". More than 200 young ecoenthusiasts and students from across India participated in the event.

Campus Watch

A Guest lecture by M M Sharma, one of India's most famous Chemical Engineers and recipient of The Padma Bhushan and The Padma Vibhushan awards, was held on the 30th of September. It was about the evolution and innovations in the Chemical industry.

The Annual Inter-College festival Zephyr happened from 2nd to 4th October. The fest included a variety of cultural, art and sports events. AH4 was crowned as this year's champion.

Tarang, the Music Night, took place on 7th October. The performances were very well received. 'My Heart will go on' and the Berklee college of Music's version of 'Jiya Jale' were a few of the crowd's favourites.

Voctronica, India's first Acapella band came to campus for a Pre-waves event on 9th October. They performed some of the most popular Indian Ad jingles, as well popular songs by Adele and Ed Sheeran.

A lecture on RC Flying and a Live streaming session of our campus was organized by AeroD on 10th October. The later was done using cameras mounted on RC Planes.

Joy of Giving Week 2015

The 2015 edition of Daan Utsav, formerly known as Joy of Giving Week, was recently celebrated on campus from 2nd to 8th October, 2015. The week kick-started with an event involving 'Thank You' cards made by school children being distributed to policemen, firemen and other men and women who contribute to society. Other events were Meal of Joy (the students and mess workers reversed roles), Tree Plantation, orphanage visit and old-age home visit. The week concluded with a full-blown celebration in the auditorium with bus-loads of kids from schools and orphanages, in the form of Joyfest.
